

REGIONAL RAPID RAIL SYSTEM MAP (CONCEPTUAL)

NOTE ON RELOCATED STATIONS:

Rexdale [Etobicoke North], Islington [Kipling], Mimico, Dufferin Gates [Exhibition], York University, Oriole, Newmarket, and Erindale have been marginally relocated from their existing context to optimize their convenience to riders of the Regional Rapid Rail network and adhere to service design criteria.

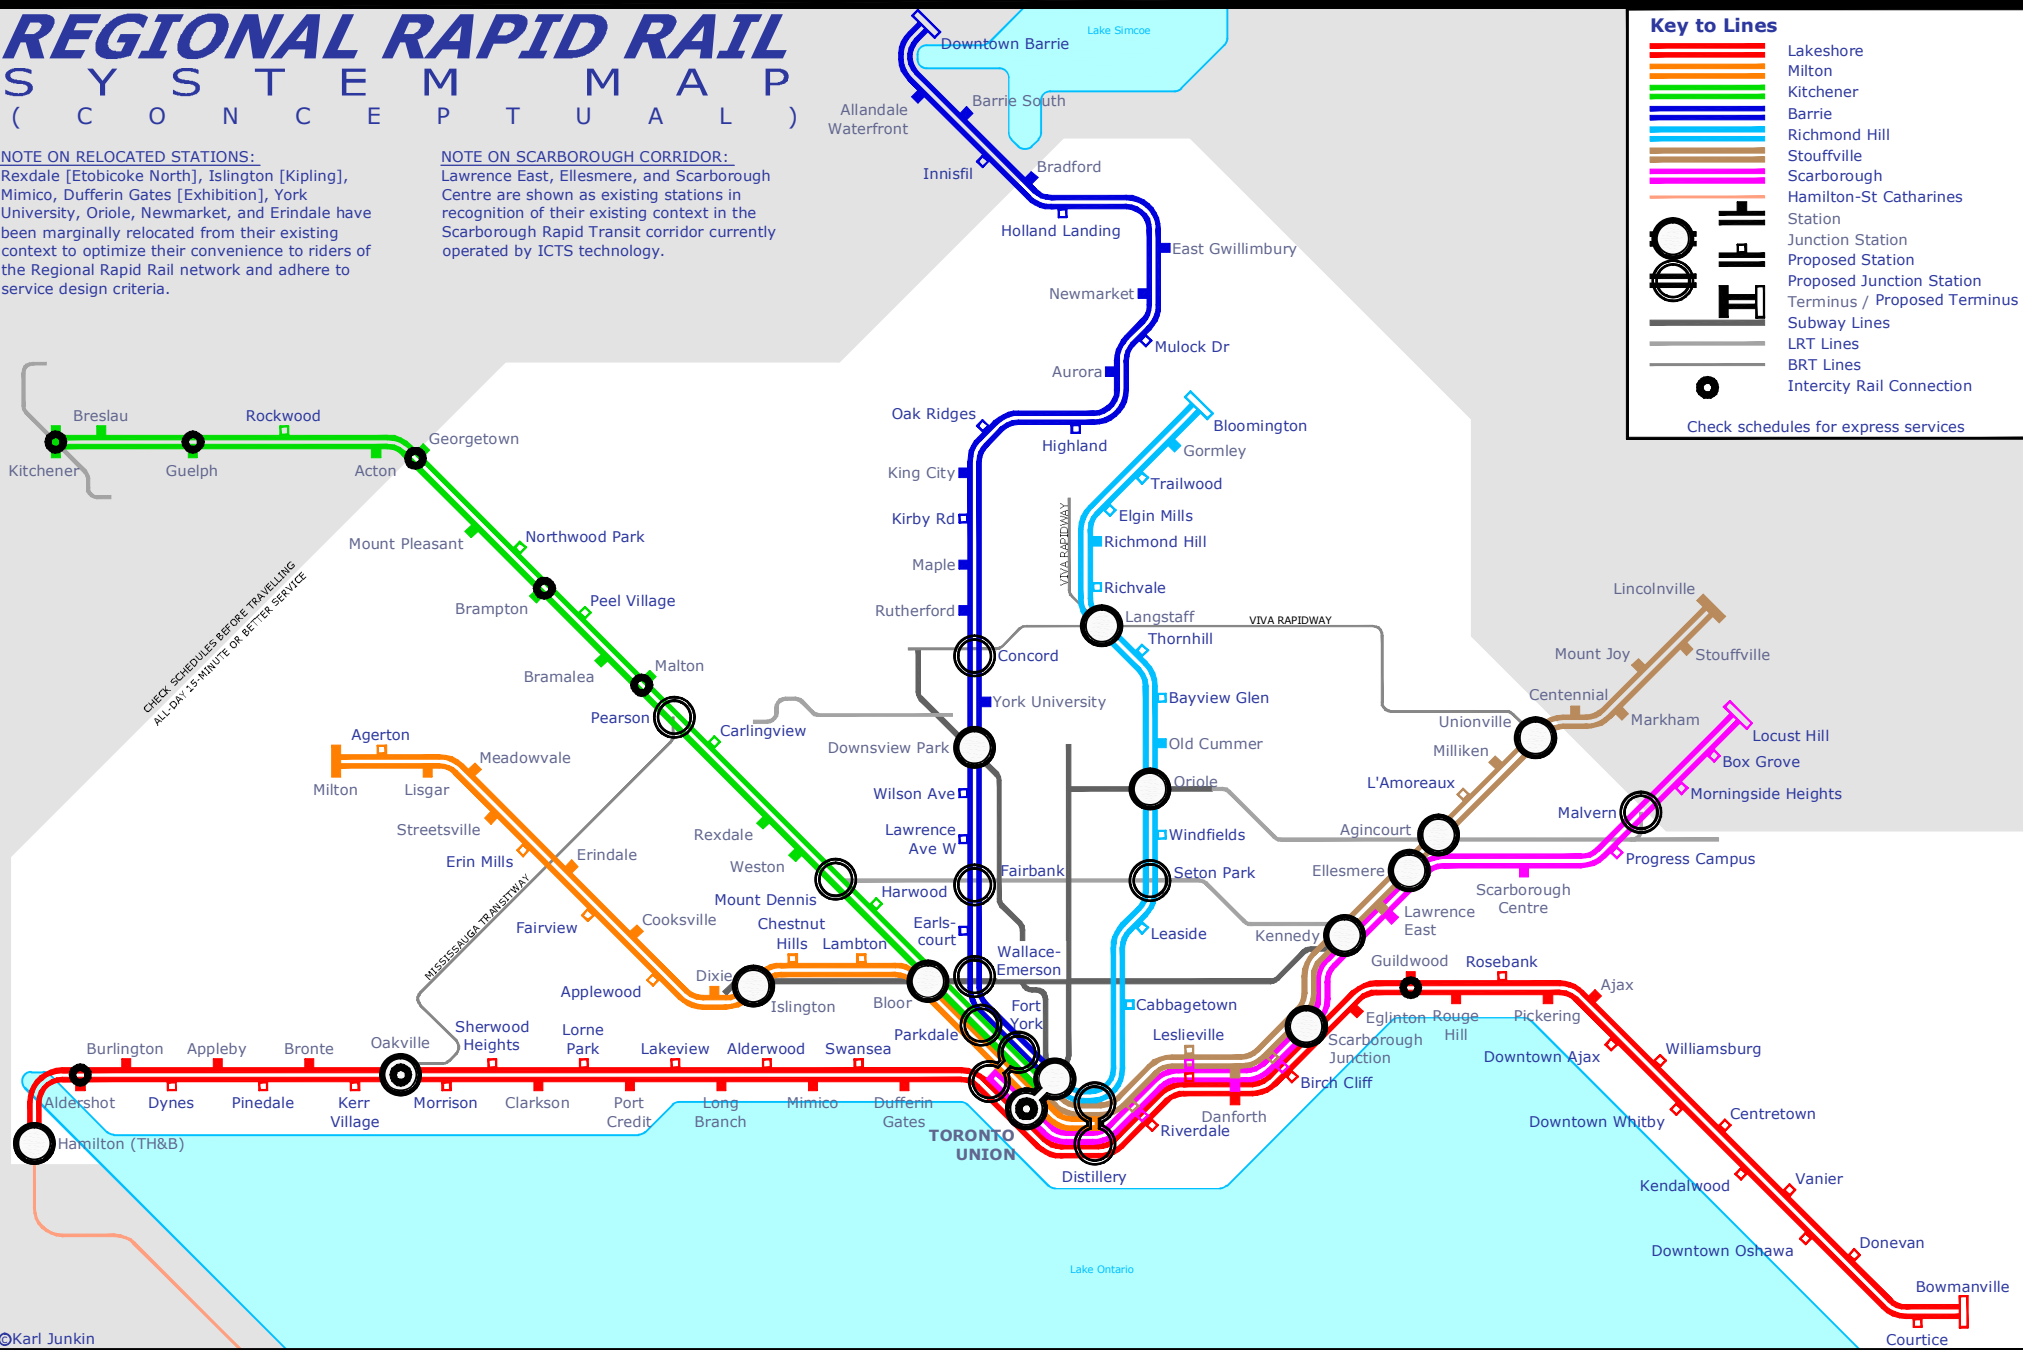

NOTE ON SCARBOROUGH CORRIDOR:

Lawrence East, Ellesmere, and Scarborough Centre are shown as existing stations in recognition of their existing context in the Scarborough Rapid Transit corridor currently operated by ICTS technology.

Key to Lines

-  Lakeshore
-  Milton
-  Kitchener
-  Barrie
-  Richmond Hill
-  Stouffville
-  Scarborough
-  Hamilton-St Catharines
-  Station
-  Junction Station
-  Proposed Station
-  Proposed Junction Station
-  Subway Lines
-  LRT Lines
-  BRT Lines
-  Intercity Rail Connection

Check schedules for express services

©Karl Junkin

This diagram mimics the style of the original design of the London, UK system map conceived in 1931 by Harry Beck. This is a conceptual map representing a proposal for a network in the year 2031 and does not represent current service(s) or facilities.